

CATHOLIC CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL

Student Ambassador $500 Freshman Scholarship

Catholic Central Student Ambassadors is an organization composed of the CCHS student body who promote the positive image of the school. Students who will be sophomores, juniors, or seniors, for the upcoming school year may apply to become a Student Ambassador. Applicants must be enthusiastic, responsible, punctual, and have the desire to project a positive image of CCHS. Interviews and teacher recommendations are included in the selection process. Ambassadors go to grade schools, religious education classes, and parishes as part of the ongoing recruitment program. They are tour guides at Open House, first friends to incoming students, and perform many other public relations activities to welcome students and enhance the school's image to the public.
